Section A

Answer one question from Section A

1 (a) With reference to the text, discuss the importance of “justice and righteousness” in the Book of Amos. [25]

(b) “Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria my handiwork, and Israel my inheritance.” (Isaiah 19:25)

With reference to this quotation, evaluate the view that God was not just concerned about Israel, but other nations as well. Justify your answer. [25]

2 (a) How did Samuel’s warning about kingship contrast with the qualities that Israel demanded of an ideal king? [25]

(b) Assess the claim that the promises made by God in the Davidic Covenant only became a problem when Jerusalem fell in 587 BCE. Justify your answer. [25]

Section B

Answer one question from Section B

- 3 (a) “Elisha brought signs of hope and life in a harsh world.”

With reference to this quotation, explain the purpose of the Elisha narratives. [25]

- (b) With reference to other aspects of human experience, comment on the claim that from a religious point of view monarchy is the best form of government. Justify your answer. [25]

- 4 (a) Examine the importance of the Mosaic Covenant in the life of ancient Israel. [25]

- (b) With reference to other aspects of human experience, assess the view that all religions lead to the same God. Justify your answer. [25]
