ADVICE TO CANDIDATES

You are advised to take account of the marks for each part question in allocating the available examination time.

Section A

Answer two questions from this section

- 1 (a) Distinguish between the terms univocal and analogical in relation to religious language. [20]
- (b) Critically assess the view that there is little evidence to support a religious world view. [30]
- 2 (a) Compare and contrast the differences between resurrection and reincarnation. [20]
- (b) "Consciousness, including thoughts and feelings, is identical with brain processes."
Critically evaluate this claim in relation to life after death. [30]
- 3 (a) Examine how Plato's Euthyphro dilemma challenges Divine Command theory. [20]
- (b) "Morality only survives because of belief in God."
With reference to this claim, critically evaluate the suggestion that morality still requires moral absolutes. [30]

Section B

Synoptic Assessment

Theme: Faith, Freedom and Atheism

You must answer this question

- 4 (a) “In an age without God, humanist principles are essential for humanity.”

Present a case for this statement. You must support your answer with reference to at least one other unit of study. [20]

- (b) Critically assess the claim that the influence of religion on humanity has always been positive. You must refer to other aspects of human experience in your answer. [30]
