Answer all questions

The questions which follow are about different interpretations of the new age of conflict, the “war on terror” and the impact on international relations, 1991–2003.

- 1 Study Source A below and answer the question which follows:

Source A: Statement by Osama bin Laden, leader of Al-Qaeda, in 1998

For over seven years the USA has been invading the lands of Islam, stealing its riches, and humiliating its people. These crimes are a clear declaration of war on all Muslims. So we issue the following fatwā to all Muslims. The ruling to kill the Americans and their allies, civilians and military, is a duty for every Muslim who can do it in any country. All Muslims must be freed from the grip of the USA. Their armies need to leave the lands of Islam, defeated and unable to threaten any Muslim.

What does Source A tell us about the attitude of Al-Qaeda towards the United States of America? [4 marks]

Use the lines below if required.

2 Study Source B and Source C below and answer the questions which follow:

Source B: The view of former British Prime Minister Tony Blair, speaking in 2016 about Britain's reasons for going to war in Iraq in 2003

The choice to join the USA in military action in Iraq was the hardest decision of my life. The USA wanted to set the Iraqi people free and remove the dictatorship of Saddam Hussein. There appeared to be evidence of weapons of mass destruction, and we had a duty to protect Great Britain, the USA and the West.

Source C: The view of an American cartoonist who was against the US invasion of Iraq in 2003

(a) Source B and Source C give different views about the reasons for the invasion of Iraq in 2003.

Explain two ways in which these views differ. [2 marks for each]

1. _____

2. _____

(b) Explain one reason why the views in Source B and Source C are different.
[2 marks]

Use the lines below if required.

- 3 Study Source D below and answer the question which follows:

Source D: The view of an American blogger in 2021

The USA used 9/11 as a reason for a series of regime changes in the Middle East. President Bush and the USA used the attacks of September 11 as a reason to invade Iraq to seize its oil fields. They wasted little time in getting started. The Bush administration lied about weapons of mass destruction in Iraq. The invasion of Iraq was not about oil, but about American power. Twenty years after more than 3000 people were killed on 9/11, the USA remains determined to fight a 'war on terror'.
